WORLD-CLASS FIDDLIN' RETURNS TO THE BLAZIN' M RANCH
Internationally Renowned Musicians Join Blazin' M Cowboys for Limited
Engagement

Enjoy the toe-tappin, knee-slappin' vocal and instrumental talents of Doug Bartlett & Paul Taylor, internationally renowned musicians who will perform on stage at the Blazin' M Ranch on selected dates in August and September. They will join award-winning regulars Jim and Jeanne Martin and Tom Jepperson for the Blazin' M's hour-long stage show that includes dinner. Special appearances will be August 15th, 16th & 18th, August 29th-September 1st, and September 12th -15th.

Doug, a professional musician for over 30 years, has toured all across the United States, Canada and Europe. Winner of two IBMA Awards and two-time Grammy Nominee while playing with such greats as Doyle Lawson and Quicksilver, The James King Band, The Lonesome River Band and Del McCoury. Bartlett has performed on many recordings with various artists playing fiddle, mandolin, guitar, bass, banjo and vocals. Besides being a multi-instrumentalist he is also a talented singer/songwriter who teaches and performs as a solo artist in Phoenix. In August 2011, Doug graced the stage at the Blazin' M Ranch for several sold-out performances. Managing Partner, Lori Mabery says "We are thrilled with the return of Doug to our show for this limited engagement. He is a phenomenal fiddler and an amazing all-around musical talent. You won't want to miss this. The barn will rock!"

Recently transplanted to the Phoenix area from New York State, Paul Taylor is an award-winning performer in his own right and member of the NY State Country Music hall of Honorees. He has performed and recorded all across the US and in Europe.

In addition to lead and harmony vocals, Taylor plays guitar, bass, drums, keyboards and harmonica. He also has extensive knowledge of MIDI and programming digital instruments and sequences. Also an accomplished songwriter, his original compositions have been used in advertising by many corporate giants, including Sony, Fisher Price, Pepperidge Farms, Family Fun and Robb Report.

For the last several years Paul has performed as a solo artist, session player and guest performer of several local, regional and national acts in the Northeast, appearing with such country stars as Jamie O'Neal, Doug Stone and Rhett Akins.

The Blazin' M Ranch is located at 1875 Mabery Ranch Road in Cottonwood. Situated on the banks of the Verde River and adjacent to Dead Horse Ranch State Park, the Blazin' M Ranch offers a cowboy dinner and show and features a variety of pre-dinner attractions and activities.
